Item No. A3 Guidelines for purchase of Books in Higher Education Institutions in the State

Considered the report of Dr. Dileep Raj (Assistant Professor, Dept of Philosophy, Govt. Brennen College Kannur) pertaining to problems of book purchase in Higher Education Institutions in Kerala.

Based on the report and the recommendations of the meeting of the librarians held on 15-09-2015 at KSHEC, it was resolved to recommend the following guidelines for purchase of books in Higher Education Institutions in the state.

1. In Higher Education Institutions, Quotations/Tenders/Negotiations are to be done away with in book purchase.
2. There should be a fixed discount rate which will be valid for a period of three years or till the next amendment and the rates may be decided at the Govt. level. Steps should be taken to fix the discount rates before the end of every third year.
3. The minimum discount rates for the purchase of books in the Higher Educational Institutions in the state could be fixed as :
Foreign Books - 17% and the exchange rates as fixed by the GOC (Good Offices Committee)
Indian Books - 20%
Malayalam - 30%
Other language books like Tamil, Kannada, Sanskrit, Arabic and books on Music -15%
4. The Kerala Store Purchase Manual Revised Edition (2013) rule 7.5 page 36 is to be amended to exclude the purchase of books and periodicals of a library from the purview of stores. In its place the provisions about the purchase of library books contained in the General Financial Rules 1963 (3rd ed.) - rules 99 & 116 which have been amended as indicated in office memorandum No. F23(7)-EII(A)/83 dated 7/2/1984 and as in the General Financial Rules, 2005 (P.27) and General Financial Rules 2017 (P.41) Ministry of Finance, Dept. of Expenditure, Govt. of India have to be incorporated.
5. Procurement of books is a routine and continuous process which is to be followed throughout the year so that the latest editions of the books are made available to the academic community.
6. Documents like periodicals, standards, patents, govt. and society publications, short discount/ no discount titles where the above mentioned discount is not available may be purchased as per the GOC terms and conditions.
7. More or less equal distribution of placing orders may be followed with the booksellers, who agree to the terms and conditions.
8. The booksellers who fail to supply at least 75% of the books ordered by an institution would be blacklisted by the institution. The list of such blacklisted booksellers should be sent to the Kerala State Higher Education Council/ Higher Education Dept. so that the Council/Govt. can keep track of their performance.

9. In colleges, it is mandatory that College Councils and Library Advisory Committee are constituted where they are non-existent and College Librarians are included in them. The provisions of the Expert Committee on the Functioning of College Libraries (V. P. Joy Committee Report, 1994) as stipulated in the G O (M S) Np.169/34/H. Edn. dated 22/11/1994 (which is enclosed) regarding the membership of the librarian in the College Councils and Library Advisory Committees and the selection and ordering of documents should be strictly adhered to.
10. A list of empanelled publishers should be prepared and updated by all Universities in the State which can be used by all Higher Education Institutions, irrespective of the University to which the Colleges / Institutions are affiliated.
11. Each University shall publish the particulars of empanelled Publishers/ Book sellers in their websites for nationwide use.
12. The terms and conditions for including vendors / publishers in the panel to be prepared by the Universities should be prepared with reference to the terms and conditions followed by leading Educational Institutions in the country. This task shall be entrusted to the Kerala State Higher Education Council.

The minutes were read and confirmed.
